

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

JONATHAN A. WHITE,

Civil No. 2:07-CV-1641-RSL-MJB

Plaintiff,

ORDER FOR REMAND

MICHAEL J. ASTRUE,
Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant

Based on the stipulation of the parties, it is hereby ORDERED that this case is REVERSED and REMANDED for further proceedings under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).

On remand, the administrative law judge will:

1. Follow the five-step sequential evaluation process;
2. Re-evaluate Plaintiff's past relevant work in light of Plaintiff's statements that he performed two different jobs at Quality Food Center, both of which required work as a cashier, given that classification of past relevant work necessitates consideration of all functions of a particular job; and

1       3.     Re-evaluate all the evidence of record, including medical opinions from treating,
2     examining, and non-examining medical sources.
3

4                 The Social Security Administration will vacate the administrative law judge's prior
5     decision and order the administrative law judge on remand to render a de novo hearing decision.
